

REPORT:

This project successfully monitors the flow rate of the water on the surface of the sensor and varies the speed of the motor accordingly. Thus, this automated wiper system help the driver to see the road without any interferences or obstacles. So, it increases the safety of the driver as well as the passengers. Most importantly, this automation is low costreliable and can be integrated in economic class automobiles.